Kim Snow is an Associate Broker at Younger Partners, where she plays a key role on the Land Team, helping real estate owners and businesses unlock the full value of their properties. Specializing in Land and Industrial leasing and sales, Kim focuses on the Dallas area and its surrounding regions, offering customized solutions that drive long-term success. With her extensive market knowledge and strategic approach, Kim guides clients through the complexities of real estate, ensuring they make informed decisions that maximize their assets' potential.

Prior to joining Younger Partners, Kim founded Kimberly Realty, where she earned a reputation for providing exceptional service and delivering results. She began her real estate career at McDougal Realtors in Lubbock, TX, developing a strong foundation in commercial sales and leasing. Kim's unique perspective on land transactions comes from her upbringing in the family's farming and ranching business, which, combined with her broad commercial real estate experience, allows her to offer clients a well-rounded and specialized approach. Her entrepreneurial mindset, strong business acumen, and ability to drive results make her a valuable asset to the team, helping to deliver exceptional value and support the firm's continued success.
