Nan Li is a Senior Associate at Younger Partners, specializing in land sales. She has extensive experience managing a broad range of high-profile, award-winning projects, including mixed-use developments, urban hotels, resorts, retail shopping centers, and residential communities across the U.S., China, the Middle East, and Central America. Her background demonstrates a strong ability to lead complex projects while navigating diverse global markets.

Currently, Nan is a key member of the land team at Younger Partners, where she focuses on land sales and acquisitions. Her deep knowledge of the land market, combined with her international experience and local expertise, allows her to provide innovative solutions and valuable insights to clients and partners. Prior to joining Younger Partners, Nan was a Project Director at Hilton Worldwide, where she played a pivotal role in the development of several major projects in China.
